In the note A. in the file, it is ~~press~~ stated that the term of the members of the R.A & L.C. will expire soon after the general elections which may take place in March 1930.

But section 5 of the R.A Regulation and section 5 of the L.C. Regulation show that the Assembly & the Council should continue for 3 years from the date of the first sitting. The first sitting in the case of R.A. was about the middle of June 1927 & that of L.C. was about the 24th of June 1927. The term of the members therefore will continue till the corresponding dates in 1930 & 27 till March 1930

LOCAL AND LEGISLATIVE SECRETARIAT.

No. P. 6526—R. A. 41-23-1, dated 28th May 1924.

The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to direct that the Standing Committee formed under paragraph 54 of Government Order No. 1367-1426--C. B. 100-23-1, dated 27th October 1923, shall be governed by the following rules :—

1. The Member of Council of His Highness the Maharaja in charge of the Departments to which the Committee is attached shall be the Chairman of each Committee provided that where the Departments relate to the portfolios of different members or to the portfolio of the Dewan such one of the members as may be appointed by Government shall be the Chairman.

2. The Secretary to Government in the Departments concerned or such other Officer as may be appointed by Government shall act as Secretary to the Committee.

3. Exclusive of the Chairman and the Secretary, each Standing Committee will consist of 6 members, of whom 4 shall be members of the Representative Assembly and the remaining 2 of the Legislative Council. The members will be selected by Government out of a panel of 15 members to be elected by ballot by the Representative Assembly and 10 members to be similarly elected by the non-official members of the Legislative Council. The Chairman may require the presence of any Head of a Department or other Officer to be present at a meeting of the Standing Committee if he considers it necessary to do so.

4. The term of office of the members of the Committee will be one year.

5. The following subjects will be placed before the Standing Committees, except when on account of urgency or some other reason a reference to the Committee has been dispensed with by the Government.

(a) Standing Committee for Railways, Electric and Public Works Departments.

Railways.—

1. Extension of Railways and Railway programme.
2. Rates for goods and passenger traffic and facilities in respect of such traffic.
3. Railway Finance.

6. In addition to the foregoing subjects the following may also be placed before the Standing Committee whenever the Government deem it desirable to do so;

(i) Reports of special committees appointed by the Government on departments coming within the purview of the Standing Committee;—

(ii) Annual Reports;

(iii) All Bills introduced or proposed to be introduced in the Legislative Council and relating to the departments within the purview of the Committee.

(iv) Any question of policy on which the Member in charge of a department concerned desire the opinion of the Standing Committee.

7. The functions of the Standing Committees will be purely advisory and their proceedings will be strictly confidential. No press representatives will be allowed to attend any meeting of the Committee.

8. Meetings of the Standing Committees will be summoned by the Secretaries at such times and as frequently as may be decided by the Dewan. The agenda of each meeting will be drawn up and circulated by the Secretary together with a memorandum explaining each item of business and copies of such papers as the Member in charge of department directs to be furnished to the Committee. The proceedings of the Committee will be confined to items of business entered in the agenda and any request for further information will be dealt with under the order of the Member in charge.

9. At a meeting of the Standing Committee, the Secretary may be requested by the Chairman to explain each item of business. The Chairman will then invite a discussion and the Secretary will note on the departmental file the general opinion of the Committee.

By Order,
K. V. ANANTARAMAN,
Secretary to Government,
Local and Legislative Departments (in charge).
